WHY OUT OF LINE?

Every good yearbook has a consistent theme. We wanted to find a theme that would represent West Island College, its students, and its staff. West Island College is a unique school that fosters individuality and strives to make its students exceptional. This sets the school out of line with most other schools.

The theme OUT OF LINE was chosen to complement the outlook of the staff and of the student body, along with adding a touch of humour to the yearbook. We wanted this yearbook to stand out in your memories as out of the ordinary.

To carry out this theme, we used headlines, art and changed (somewhat) the appearance of the yearbook. After all of our efforts, we hope that you enjoy flipping through this history of the past year.

HEADMASTER'S ADDRESS

I enjoy receiving my yearbook each year. As October rolls around, I feel myself eagerly awaiting the arrival of Voyages and picturing in my mind the memories it will evoke.

Voyages 1999 is a chronicle of the academic year 1998-1999. It highlights the exploits, adventures and accomplishments of our community members and, as such, provides insight into the culture of West Island College. The College's vision: "By involving each student in unparalleled, relevant and diverse opportunities, every West Island College student achieves his or her potential."

gains breath in the pages of the yearbook. The photographs and write-ups which appear in Voyages 1999 record the multiplicity of experiences in which our students were engaged. The gamut is lengthy and it is wide. It reflects the W.I.C. experience in all its facets and showcases the "total" education which our philosophy espouses.

If a school wishes to be an excellent school, it must provide all of its students with opportunities; opportunities to learn, opportunities to grow, opportunities to lead, opportunities to dream, opportunities to test themselves, opportunities to succeed. As the pages of Voyages 1999 reveal, West Island College is an excellent school. Our students have excelled in the chances they have been given and have, this year, added to the legacy of accomplishments provided by previous generations of "Wicers."

I would like to thank Editor Kathryn Potter and her staff for all of the efforts they have expended to ensure that this publication would accurately reflect the events of the year just passed - they have done a wonderful job.

If you are like me, you just want to get started on devouring the book. Enjoy the experience. Welcome to the world of W.I.C.!

Sincerely,
Mr. Jack Grant
Headmaster

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

After Graduation

This is a very special time of year. Schools across North America are graduating millions of young people. Family members and friends will travel thousands of miles in order to join in celebrations which mark both the ending of a most significant achievement and the dawn of new challenges and directions. We are all, legitimately, proud of you, the graduates. We salute you tonight. As you step forward to receive your diplomas, as you bask in the accomplishments of colleagues and friends, as you say farewell to this school and your experiences here, as you thank your mentors, you are taking a huge step into the future of university studies and the workplace. Graduation is not an end, but a beginning.

As a school, our job was to prepare you for new beginnings, and to do that, we have placed as much emphasis on life skills and values as we have on academics. A number of recent tragedies in high schools across North America indicate, more strongly than ever, that it is time for us all to take more control over the values that shape our lives and those of your children. Unfortunately, this adult world has probably spent more time counselling you on what it takes to get into university or what it takes today to get a job and, I suspect, not enough time on what it takes to derive quality and pleasure in your life. What grades would you give your parents if you were marking the quality of their lives? Do they pass? Do you want to pass?

This has been a tough time to grow up at West Island College: the problems are probably worse than those experienced in the general population. The problem is that the young people in this room are born of very, very successful parents. That makes for a lot of young people wondering if they will ever be as successful as their parents. It also means that the mind set at entry to college and university is not really focused on learning, but rather careers. I can't begin to count the number of well-intended parents I have met who have come to my office to talk about their sons' and daughters' careers and how to get there. While we have discussed the suitability of Physics over Chemistry and Philosophy as opposed to Biology, the essence of the conversations has always boiled down to equating the economic utility of a course in the context of your pre-planned career. Now all parents don't deserve this characterization but almost all of your parents will encourage you to pursue those professions and vocations which are typically high yield. It's as if every job out there has its own I.Q., that's "Income Quotient." Landing a job or pursuing a career with a high I.Q. ensures quality of life. Honestly, income is only part of the equation that might, and only might, contribute to the quality of life.

It's a huge pressure to approach college, university or the workplace, feeling the burden that you have to match your parents' economic success. Don't take on this burden. Your experience here, your interests and your own God-given talents will lead you to a desirable choice for you.

As President of West Island College in Montréal and Calgary, and as President of West Island College International (Class Afloat), I lead an organization where careers are both prepared and lived out. There are many young and talented people working for this company and they all share an interest in successful careers. However, unique focus on a career is not a good thing. We are in trouble if the singular focus is on getting a well-paying job. It would only result in superbly trained employees who are less prepared for life and less interested in society in general.

West Island College and West Island College-Class Afloat, however, offer a head start. We assemble, year in, year out, a host of talented young people whom we expect will excel in the classroom and whom we direct to look beyond their "economic utility" in the workplace. We want them to be active players on the broader field of life. Accordingly, our playing field, a euphemism for curriculum is literally littered with life experiences. Accordingly, our rules of play, a euphemism for teaching strategies, are engagement in hands-on, real life experiences.

If we are to preserve our environment, we can't be too busy in our careers. If we are to nurture the arts, we can't do it with a cheque book alone. If we turn our backs on injustices, we will never contribute to the betterment of our humankind. If we become too narrow in our focus, we will not only impoverish our society, we will never, ever, develop our full potential as contributing and responsible citizens of the world. If we have been successful at West Island College, regardless of geography or campus, it is because we have insisted on this balance. It is even more important when one considers that you are the leaders of tomorrow. The broad sense of values that you have acquired here risk being lost as life takes on a more permanent outlook. If that outlook becomes mired in the workplace, then both the individual and society will have lost a great opportunity.

As you look ahead to college and university, keep in mind that, among other things, it is meant to be fun. Grab every experience that student life has to offer. Play out those years in an interest class, on a stage, on a playing field. Engage in lively discussions with other bright and inquiring minds. Explore and involve yourselves in our rich traditions of political debate. Help others to help themselves. Clean up a riverbed and, for goodness sakes, never stop travelling and asking questions about everything. It will be the result of these kinds of experiences that will prepare you for a future in all of its forms. It will be these experiences which will make you a well-rounded citizen and successful in the workplace.

In the words of Stephen Wolf, a C.E.O. whom I greatly respect, remember that "great companies and good governments are made up of people who think broadly, innovate, and work in teams as they reach out to others in search of a solution. They are places where talented individuals share their skills and analytical abilities, and then share in the joy of success. They are also places full of people who care about others and the world in which we live. It is through this combination that enterprise flourishes, the individual flourishes, and our world is a better place in which we live."

Please accept my very best wishes for happiness and success in all that you undertake. Thank you.

President

BOARD OF GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS

W.I.C. Graduation Speech

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. As one of my last duties as Chairman of W.I.C. Board of Governors, I have the honour and pleasure of addressing the graduating class of '99.

The Headmaster's advice to me was to make some remarks from a parent perspective. So I have tried to do this in a way that will draw on my life experience while hopefully giving you, the graduates, a few hints on how to be successful and to have a full life, and do all this in five minutes or less.

Let me begin by giving you a bit of background on my development as an individual and then finish by making it relevant to each of you.

First, I was not a particularly gifted student. My dad was after me before I hit my teens about what I was planning to do and be. Result was I learned at an early age to think about the future. At 15, I had decided to become an engineer as opposed to taking over the family business, something my dad was desperately hoping I would do. Surprisingly, he fully endorsed my decision, saying it was critical that I was to love what I was to spend a high proportion of my waking hours doing.

Now what you are probably asking yourselves at this stage is "what in the world does this boring monologue have to do with you upon your graduation from W.I.C.?" Let me try to clarify the lessons I learned.

Lesson 1 - As in business, you must take stock of your individual strengths, weaknesses and passions - to set goals without an honest assessment of where you are is a mistake.

Lesson 2 - Get into the habit of setting career and life goals. Just like in business, if you have no direction, you are leaving destination to chance - and the years go by faster than you think possible.

Lesson 3 - Develop and commit to a series of steps or actions which when executed should lead to the attainment of your goals and dreams - remember tenacity and hard work are highly correlated with success.

Lesson 4 - Periodically assess the progress you are making towards your goals and reassess and adjust those goals if necessary.

Lesson 5 - While becoming goal oriented is important, remember life is a journey not a destination, so enjoy the trip as well as the achievement of key milestones.

Lesson 6 - Choose employers and bosses based on how much you can learn from them, because life-long learning and growth is what it's all about.

Lesson 7 - It doesn't matter where you begin but where you end up. One thing is for sure: there will be obstacles to overcome every step of the way. To have had to struggle early is a distinct advantage.

So whether your next step is university, college or beginning your working career, this is not the end but the beginning when it comes to learning. And if W.I.C. has done its job well you have all learned how to learn, to lead, to work together and to behave in a variety of circumstances.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish each of you success in your chosen fields and a full life.

Mr. Scott Owens
Chairman of the W.I.C. Board of Governors

EVEN THE STAFF CAN GET OUT OF LINE!

The staff at West Island College are upstanding, respectable members of the community at large, who would never even consider any slightly inappropriate or unusual behavior - yeah right.

Below a rogues' gallery poses under the watch of Mr. Grant - Cruella Muller, Sinister Breland, Desperado Rennie, Hollinshead - man, Purrfect Laubman, & Jeannie Armitage.

Who really run the school are pictured above: Tina, Dani, Dawna (our former chef - now of course its Bev who makes lunchtime our favorite time) and Aude. To the right, Agnes gives 'that' look, Wendy on 'lunch supervision', and Andrea below that shows what we're really all about.

PREFECTS

Missing: Kate Brown (Students' Council President)

Our year was filled with singing, fashion shows, sleepovers and of course strikes. It was definitely an entertaining and challenging year both as Prefects and as Grade 12's

Our year would not have been as successful without the leadership and enthusiasm of each prefect. Each one also brought along unique qualities that were assets to the board. we wish next year's Prefect board the best of luck and alot of fun. And remember, "tuck in your shirt".

WICAA, or West Island College Athletics Association, is the organization responsible for athletic groups, activities and teams here. This has been an exceptional year for the association, as we have achieved many of our goals. Some of these goals include participation in the Adopt a Family program, funky intramurals and the introduction of a Junior Vice President to encourage more input from the Junior School.

-Katherine Howson, WICAA President

STUDENTS' COUNCIL

Missing: Kate Brown (Students' Council President)

This year's council was made up of ten enthusiastic and devoted members and two supporting advisors. Our goal this year was to change the West Island atmosphere by creating a fun and secure place to be. We reached our first goal of fun through Video Dances, Movie days, trips to Canada Olympic Park and Lake Louise, Bowling, Slip and Slide, BBQ's, carnations on Valentine's Day and Halloween Costume contests.

Our second goal of security and accountability was met with the formalization of Students' Council ceremonies and the creation of the first ever Students' Council Constitution. This will ensure that the future councils will fulfill the needs of the student body to the best of their ability. I would like to congratulate this year's council for all of the effort they put forward. It was a privilege to lead such a motivated group.

Good Luck to the Students' Council of 1999-2000. It is up to you to continue our success.

Kate Brown
Students' Council President

As in past years, the creation of this yearbook was a challenging endeavor. We, the editors, wanted to create a book with a consistent theme and somewhat varied from past yearbook while maintaining the traditional look. We chose the theme "OUT OF LINE" to do so. A great deal of work went into the making of this yearbook; we hope that you enjoy reading it.

Thank you to all the yearbook staff who worked willingly as photographers, writers, typists, and marketers whenever called upon to do so. We really appreciate their commitment and tireless efforts to help produce the best yearbook possible. Thank you also to Mr. Rennie and Mr. Belisle for all of their ideas and help, as well as their support throughout the making of this yearbook. Our appreciation is also extended to all of the English, French, and Art teachers for providing student work upon demand. Along with the teachers, we would also like to thank the following students: Shannon Thomson and Erin Thomas for the endless hours they put into this yearbook's creation; Katie French and Andrew Keeping for all of the articles they wrote for the yearbook; and Cassie Brown for working on the art sections.

OUT FOR LAUGHS

OUT FOR FUN

Views

Do you see the side of me
Talk the talk
Walk the walk
Do your eyes deceive you
Do your eyes deceive me
The way you see
Like me
No
You can't
Why?
Different than I
Assumptions
Beliefs and reliefs
Of people
Of me
Of you
Change
Always changing
I can't change anyone
Only myself
Respect for others
Myself
Yourself
Still growing
Respect.

Between the Beauty

She skips down the hall
With everyone in tow
She swirls her locks
Bats her eyes
As the bluest colour flashes
in her eyes
Everyone fawns over her
Everyone wants to be her
For she is beauty herself
And never has she looked better
But behind the mask
which beauty has created
There lies a greater desire
To be loved for more than just her looks

Family Outings

Again we depart
Brother screams in the back
Canmore is an hour away
Dog barks at passing cars
Eagles soar overhead
Foothills become never-ending
Giant mountains are miles away
Hanson is playing on the radio
I wish I was still sleeping

UNE COUTUME CANADIENNE

Je ne crois pas ces Canadiens! ils sont très bizarres. Ils gardent les poissons dans leurs maisons pour les regarder! Ils gardent aussi des chiens et des chats et beaucoup d'autres sortes d'animaux avec eux!

Les Canadiens gardent les poissons dans des aquariums transparents qui sont faits de verre. Ils ajoutent des rouveaux poissons colorés chaque autre jour. Ils marchent aussi leurs chiens à l'extérieur dans des températures très froides. Ils mettent des laisses autour des cous des chiens! Ils pensent que les chats sont les plus excellentes choses! Ils agissent comme leurs chats sont reines! je pense que des chiens et des chats sont extrêmement inutiles!

Pourquoi ces personnes traitent leurs animaux comme royauté, je ne sais pas. Je sais que je pense TOTALEMENT qu'ils sont très, très, très foux!!!

-Emily Jackson, Grade 7

LAURA GEDGE

J'ai douze ans et je suis né en Oakville. Ma famille aime des animaux. Nous avons un chien qui s'appelle Shannon, un lapin qui s'appelle Daisy, deux tortues et quinze poissons. J'ai une soeur. Elle a neuf ans.

Je suis une nageuse concurrentielle. Je nage pour un club qui s'appelle Kalos. Nous nageons six fois par semaine et nous faisons de la forme physique une fois par semaine. Nous avons deux entraîneurs. Ils s'appellent Monica et Jodi.

J'aime le football aussi. Je joue pour Willowridge. Nous sommes les meilleures joueuses sur l'équipe dans la ville et cinquième dans la province.

Quand je suis grande, je veux être une biologiste marine. Il prend le dévouement et les hautes notes dans les mathématiques et les sciences. Ça c'est pourquoi j'ai choisi West Island College.

Into Everything!

TRICKSTER

For five days in September, the school residency program known as "Trickster" worked its magic with the Junior School students. The week's goals of these "magicians" were to make an "original, educational performance highlighting the work and skills of the students." They were to accomplish this using tools such as "action learning", "intellectual expression", and "character building." This is not easy to do with teens.

Throughout the week, each class worked very hard at making one or two skits to be performed at the end of the week. Each class was first assigned a prop: fun-fur (a big piece of fake fur), black lights, crash mats, shadow, and dance. Then, using these props, each group created a skit based on different themes such as urban legends, diseases, Anna/Anastasia (joué en français), the mystery of math, the mystery of the universe, and the biggest mystery of all, the opposite sex. The students, Trickster staff, teachers, and volunteers worked with each other to pull off seven excellent skits that were performed on Friday, September 25.

With a name like Trickster, it was hard to know what to expect and their approach to teaching was just as unconventional as their name. The stories were developed through a series of games and activities, instead of just handing out scripts and telling students what to do. Trickster staff used their imaginations to open ours. We also got to know our classmates better in a setting different than the classroom. We learned how to work together as a group, which is needed to get through the school year successfully. The experience gave the students a sense of belonging to something big, which is a very satisfying feeling. Not to mention five full days without uniforms (yay)!

THE LEONARDO DA VINCI EXHIBIT

Victoria

Perceptions of the Exhibit

"The exhibit was fantastic. The thing that amazed me the most was the view. When you stood back against a wall and looked at the entire collection it was almost impossible to imagine that any one man could do so much work in his life. He had been not only a master painter and sculptor but an insightful and brilliant scientist as well. His drawings and sketches of machines had been precise to the most minute detail, and many were even able to be replicated by the museum to show us in three dimensions what Leonardo had envisioned. To see his perception of life through his ability to transfer it onto a canvas and convey it to us was truly to understand the enormity of his greatness. I'm sure that the day had an impact on the entire group. I know that I will always remember the day I got the extraordinary privilege to see the artworks that were the legacy of the undeniably talented Renaissance genius, Leonardo DaVinci."
-Cassie Brown

"What I liked the most in terms of the art exhibit was the sketches and the paintings. I found it very exciting to see that one individual could do so much in his lifetime and also be so far ahead of himself. It was like he had a crystal ball into the future. The art exhibit was very stunning."

NOT IN LINE!

C.O.P. Spirit Day

The first spirit day of the 1998-1999 school year took place at Canada Olympic Park; students participated in activities such as inline skating, mountain biking, ski jumping, volleyball, and tours of the park and the museum.

The following is a review of the inline skating written by Chandra Gunther.

Only minutes after many WIC students hopped off their Greyhound buses at Canada Olympic Park, the activities got underway and adventures with inline skating began. Twenty Wic-ers all gathered together and strapped on their knee-pads, elbow pads, wrist-guards and helmets. Not to mention the roller blades, of course. Then, everyone then headed down to an empty parking lot that would become the skating rink and split into advanced and intermediate groups. Each group had a lot of fun!

Remembrance Day

DEAD NEVER MEND

They thought it would be short,
and quite an easy run.
Then the brave began to die,
dying one by one.

The loyalists soon found out that war was not a game.
They realized that hate and fear and ignorance were to take the blame.

Inside the dirty ditches,
the fighters closed their eyes.

They dreamed of warm beds
and pretty girls,
and homebaked cherry pies.

So the weary souls fought
their way,
and wondered why they stayed.

Along, the path, marking every grave
where the dead remained.

Those who know the story
must also know the end.
The men were slaughtered,
and the dead never mend.

-Sarah Kishkan, Grade 10

... "Et puis, q'est-ce qui c'est passé?" Ma therapeute me questionnait avec un voix consolant. "Qu'est-ce que vous avez vous dans la maison?"

J'ai répondu lentement, en choisissant mes mots avant de parler.

J'ai ouvert la porte et... et il n'y avait rien dans la maison. Rien autre qu'une chaise. Il y avait une personne sur la chaise- une jeune fille qui regarde timide. Elle parlait, mais je n'ai pas pu comprendre ce qu'elle disait. J'ai marché près d'elle; elle l'entendait à peine maintenant.

J'hésitais un peu. Ma therapeute a dû penser déjà que j'étais une psychopathe illusionale.

"Oui?" Elle me faisait signe de continuer.

"Ah oui, bien sûr. . elle trainait la et parlait. Elle décrivait quelque chose de son enfance. Elle racontait une histoire, mais c'était comme si elle vivait ça à ce moment. A un certain point dans l'histoire elle a dit qu'elle n'oublierait jamais comment sa mère lui parlait et lui chantait quand elle était une petite enfant. Elle pleurait comme elle finissait l'histoire. Elle était heureuse parce qu'elle a su que sa famille l'aimerait et qu'elle avait vraiment de la chance. Elle a regardé en haut seulement pour voir que je sortais. J'étais. J'avais su que je n'appartenais pas près de cette maison."

"Pourquoi est-ce que vous êtes senti l'étranger?" Ma therapeute a demandé. "Est-ce que vous n'avez pas voulu rester à la maison avec la fille? Vous auriez pleuré avec elle."

"Non, il était différent. Je devais courir loin de cette maison; cette fille. Je pleurais, mais il était parce que je ne me suis jamais senti que mes parents m'ont vraiment aimé. Il y avait le silence.

"Peut-être l'enfant.. peut-être.. Nos deux heures sont passées. Je vais penser au sujet de ce rêve. Je vais te dire la semaine prochaine."

"Mais attendez.." je commençais...

"Il n'était pas un rêve."

"A la semaine prochaine, madame. Au revoir."

 When I was asked to write this so early in the year, the first thing that I thought of was how much fun everyone had in Grade 7 and how much better Grade 8 has been so far. People are always smiling. And as Bob Dylan says, "Oh the times they are changing." Hope you all had a good year. Love,

Grade Nine Message

The grade nine students this year are extremely unique and enthusiastic people. Throughout the past year, we've had a lot of laughs and not so many tears. In this group everyone has their own place. They can be their individual selves and still be accepted. As a group we have various different talents such as artistic talents, athletic talents, academic talents and certainly dramatic talents. This year we all experienced the PARTY (Prevent alcohol and risk related trauma in youth) program. This program had a deep impact on all of us. We also had a great time participating in Trickster.

Many kids in our grade have leadership roles. We have elected a "Celebration" committee that will help make our last year of Jr. High the most memorable possible.

Because many of us are leaving, this is our last year all together. I don't think any of us will ever forget Jr. High.

Friends were immediately made as new faces joined our grade this year. Although many classmates left during the change from Junior to Senior High, our spirit remained the same. We are still a very enthusiastic group, with lots of participation in every WIC activity. We are no longer isolated from the rest of the school; now, the beginnings of new relationships with other grades are being built. Our grade is truly an open-minded group with lots of originality. Memories were made and will remain with us for a long time. Without us, the school would not be complete. We rule the school!

Lines from the rep...
Grade 11 was certainly a year of challenge. New courses and new expectations all tested our potential. It was truly awe inspiring to see everyone rise to the challenge in their own way, all with the common goal of success. We learned we could depend on each other, helping out wherever there was need. As a group, we became more responsible, taking on a greater role in the school community. There were both good times and bad, but we pulled through...together. So with dreams in our heads and motivation in our hearts, we will continue to face any new challenge put before us.

OUT OF SCHOOL!
Grade 8 Experiential Education

The Gr. 8's went to Porcupine Creek campsite for their experiential education trip this year. They went rock climbing and hiking for two days. The first day was a little soggy and some people got a little muddy (ie: Cass). The best part was over-nighting. Logan had his little party but it took a couple of hours to cook dinner that night. After dinner there were games of all sorts that people were playing. It was so much fun !

OUT FOR A BLAST!
Grade 9 Experiential Education

Grade 9 Experiential Ed.

For experiential education, the grade nines went on a cross-country ski trip to Kananaskis Country. Although we had a slow start (Michelle), we were soon on our way to a very memorable trip. We all struggled but finally got the hang of cross country skiing (well, most of us!). It was a lot of fun, especially eating meals prepared by our friends. It was definitely an experience to remember!

-Sarah Goldstein, Grade 9

ECUADOR 99

The Ecuador trip was an amazing experience. For nearly two weeks, a group of seniors, along with Ms. Laubman and Mr. Larsen, toured the Andean Highlands and Tropical Rainforests of Ecuador. Along the way, we had countless experiences that are now the subject of many "remember when" stories. Some of the highlights of the trip include playing soccer during a tropical rainstorm, swimming in the Amazon, roadtripping with Henry and Miguel, exploring the markets, climbing up to the Cotopaxi Volcano refuge, "night light" at places where we were staying and meeting new people.

-Andrew Keeping

Some of the most memorable experiences were:

- Darren's witch doctor event
- Soccer in the rain
- The rainforest
- Swimming in the Amazon

VALEDICTORIAN'S ADDRESS

In the strictest sense the valedictorian address is a farewell, a goodbye, a handful of words to speed us, this year's graduates of West Island College, on our way. But my humble opinion as this year's senior class representative it is much more, and I am confident my feelings echo those of my peers.

First of all this is an appreciation, an appreciation of all the parents, teachers and everyone else who has contributed so greatly to our lives thus far. The amount of support we have received over the course of our years at WIC, not to mention our lives, from parents, teachers, coaches, family and friends is immeasurable. Whether we asked for it or not, or whether we realized its value, un failingly we have been the beneficiaries of your help, your caring and your concern. And although your labours may have sometimes seemed thankless, believe me, I speak for all of us when I say thank you. We can only hope to live up to the high standards set before us.

Let us not forget, however, why we are here tonight. This night, more than any other night in our lives so far is recognition and a celebration of us, the graduates, our accomplishments and how far we have come. You need just look among us to see the depth of our success. Already we have become accomplished and found distinction in everything from athletics and our studies to leadership and responsibility. In a brief span of time we have gained not only the skills and knowledge that have brought us this far but the confidence that will carry us far the rest of our lives. Let me be the first to congratulate us, because regardless of what happens or what anyone says, we have truly earned our place here as the West Island College class of 1999. Congratulations, graduates. I know I am not alone when I say that each and every one of us will find success in what we choose to do, in no small part due to ourselves and what we have learned here at W.I.C. and each other.

Finally, this evening is a reflection. We are here to reflect on the past, and where we have come from, but more importantly, we are here to reflect on where we can go. Because as cliché as it may sound, our possibilities are truly boundless. There is no limit to what we can achieve. So wherever you go and whatever you do, I wish you the best of luck. Farewell, W.I.C., our future awaits.

John Olson
Valedictorian

JULIA BOUVRY

Goodbye WIC!

To Tigerlily, Davy Crockett, mint chocolate chips, Mother Goose, Callebaut, Old Gray and the Wise Man: thank you for the hugs, lollipops, sunsets, walks, piggy back rides and talks. I love you guys. M.D. -- See you in the car, baby.

Thank you to my teachers and family. Best of luck to the class of '99. Keep in touch. "I don't want to finish first, I just want to last." - Elvis Costello

KATE BROWN

If there is something I'd like to be remembered for, it's being the girl who liked to be at the top. I was pres of every club I joined. Thinking about the future makes me nervous, but good luck everyone. C.R. -- I luv U. M.M. -- Nice Cleavage. E.L. -- Let's go Canoeing.

Where do I begin now that it has ended? Ironically, after six years of laughter and (of course) being laughed at, I still manage to find myself at a loss for words. If nothing more, it must be known that I have been a treasure growing wiser at WIC. J.B. -- It's not MADAM3, it's the onions! J.W. -- Patience is a virtue. Lau, J.M., S.H., M.H. -- How long has it been now...1000 years? Virj -- Turner no more! A.P. -- I will expand on your turf no longer, thanx for always keeping me on point! J.M., K.H., M.G., and the class -- Luv you all. Though the black blazers may fade, the memories will last forever...

DESIREE FOFIE

MEAGAN GRAY

Finally finished. It's definitely been a...crazy three years. To B.H. -- Hey chica, what to say... dictionary games, double nose tap...are you seeing a theme? Remember, it's not good to party on a school night. To J.M. -- I'll have a cake with lots of sugar and a basket of bread. To J.W. -- Watch when turning left onto Elbow, and if someone is going too slow...pass them. To N.V. -- chose, chose, chose... To A.P. -- Am I talking to you or myself? To J.J. -- Thanks for always dropping me on my head. To D.F. -- Whenever you're mad, call me, we'll hit some balls. To J.B. -- Hey Lycée Trooper, I'll never forget the talks. To everybody else, good luck and have fun. See ya.

BRITTANY HILL

DAVID CHALMERS

This "life" that we are in right now could be all we've got or it could be just a drop of water in the ocean. I would opt for the second, but it's your choice as to how you want to live it. No matter what happens, enjoy yourself. Thanks everybody, including Mrs.deForest.

Even though I have only spent one year here at WIC, I have made many great memories and friends. I will remember everything from Windermere to the great physics classes that were enjoyed by all. Right Jill? "Blah, Blah, Blah. Have fun in Boston!" K.H.: "Did you bring the tapes? Always remember Fival." L.L.: "Thanks for all the great Dawson's tapes." K.R.: "We will always be OLD friends." M.G., it was great! "Beautiful, you're silly, have another corona chica. If you can't decide on something, flip a coin. It solves all your problems. Oh, and no more games you're guaranteed to lose (tap tap)!" Thanks to my parents and family for the support and opportunities they have provided. Good luck to all in the future. And Mike, "He really won?"

SERENA CURRY

Thanks to everyone at WIC for making my last year of high school more than memorable. J.W. -- Friday lunches ruled! K.D. -- you're the best. M.L. and J.K. -- you guys are awesome. M.M. -- the best is yet to come. S.K., C.R., E.L., J.B., and D.C. -- it's been fun. What would we do without Country Style? Special thanks to Sheiva and Jade -- I couldn't have made it without you.

"Always be a first-rate version of yourself, not a second-rate version of someone else." - Judy Garland

STEPHEN HOLBROOK

Wow, I can't believe it's all over! Woods, Muir and Johnson, the Dangerous crew will live on. Laura, you were a good friend to me, I'll never forget that. Erin, thanks for all the good times we had, and those to come. Teddy, Lobs, and the rest of the rugby team, keep playing. Jill, you fly higher than a falcon. Amish, we had some good times at my house. John, stop stressing. Adam...well, keep it real and loosen up. Morgan, if style were money, you'd be a millionaire. Des, if looks could kill, I'd be dead. p.s. Does anybody have any food? I'm still hungry!

KERRI DRAKE

I can't believe it's over! So many memories, so little space! Country style spares and nature walks to the parking lot. Thanks to everyone, you know who you are, who made this year amazing. K.H., Good luck at Queen's. I'll miss you! Summer '97, the good old days. S.C., I love you! Keep smiling. K.R. and M.L., you're my boys. Thanks for all the advice. S.K., Windermere '98. It's Nowhere man. Good luck with I.B., S.G., good luck at WIC. Are you wet or wet? Have fun! C.W., I love you and always will. G.P., I'm hooteragous. "Lead, follow, or get out of the way."

Karebear

MAC HOMME

Wow! When I look back on my six years at WIC, I stop and think to myself, "gee whiz, what a wild ride!" Thanx to M.Y., M.L., E.L., D.L., J.J., J.W., and of course J.T. for all the great times of fun and laughs. P.S.: It's perfectly pleasant outside!

MAX DODD

What can I say? Summing up my school life is no easy task. Until now I would have just called it life but now it's the past. All that can be done is look ahead I guess. I would like to thank those who made my school life more enjoyable. All my friends for keeping me sane even though it might seem like you failed, and my family, especially my parents who supported and believed in me despite my relentless idiocy over the past few years. If there is one thing I've learned, it can be summed up in this quote:

"A Proud Canadian." - RR

KATHERINE HOWSON

J.M. -- LAZYBOY! D.F. -- "Double time." N.S. -- Mooching IS a disease. C.G. -- We love you Dré. I found my mouthgard. Lau & N.V. -- Peach. K.D. -- Rocks under sleeping bags and summer '97. A.H. -- WINDERMERE FOREVER! You're the most original oreo in the package, but if you were any less black, you'd be clear. K.R. -- Gimme a kiss. A.P. -- Junior mints all over the floor! M.W. -- Got a joke yet? J.W. & M.Y. -- a snail walks into the bar. Final words of wisdom: "Don't let what others think decide who you are." - Dennis Rodman Chow, Snuggles

FABIAN HUEBNER

I have had a lot of fun here and it was an awesome experience to be in Calgary for a year on my own. But soon I will have to go back to Germany where I have two years of school left. Perhaps some people might remember me as the guy with the radical left wing opinions. Mike L. is going to remember our trip that lasted four hours through the desert in Windermere. Anyway, I am never going to forget this year as an exchange student. I hope some of the people here will come and visit me in Germany.

ALICIA HUNTER

Such a bittersweet goodbye to write. Six years of my life invested in this small building that holds the memories of my youth, and words will never express how much of my heart is here with all of you special ppl. Jill and Joe thank you it has been a blessing. N.V.: asc will always make me laff and spanish makes me gag, but that is where i got to meet such a great friend! Peer Support! L.L.: such a special girl. one day you will be brave enuff to be part of the asc. don't change you are so beautiful! N.S.: K.H. the that apple pie you made! lots of hugs, and C.G., sweetie, and K.H., my precious friend, many saturday nights asking about the famous? "if you were a ..." all the talks about D's. all the times spent with you are a treasure kept in my happy place. K.D.: Virgo always. J.M.: mrs. white. S.W.: my best friend. i thank god for you. too many memories to write here, but be assured i will remember them until im grey. lots of love, your penguin, waiting at the gates of heaven for you. and too the rest i could write a book i miss all of you! but i pray for all of your happiness and success.

LAURA LANGKOWSKI

It's been a long but enjoyable four years. I would like to thank my parents for everything they've done for me. S.H. — Any Gossip! You never lived up to your end of it anyways. Thank for being such a great friend. E.L. — Let's go shopping! S.K. — you were the worst influence in my life. M.W. — Don't cross the line! C.R. — Who can forget Bart's RV? K.B. — Remember Steve's got eyes everywhere. M.M. — You're my main support system! Your the bestest girlfriend anyone could have. S.C. — MTV rocks! See yah!

CHANDRA GUNTHER

My last and only year at WIC has been a great one, thanks to everyone at WIC, my family and friends. You have all been so wonderful to me, I hope you know how much I appreciate your kindness and support. I love you all from the bottom of my heart. L.L. — If university doesn't work out, I can always turn to the streets... K.H. — Remember the "Night from Hell" — the Dixie Chicks solve everything. N.S. — I don't want the Iced Tea! N.V. — No more frosters and fries for me! You guys are the BEST!©

ERIC JOHANSON

Considering this was my first and last year here I don't think I could have survived any longer. Thanks to the Rugby team for a great year. Had some good times in the parking lot! Thanks to everyone there, you know who you are.

ERIN LESTER

It's been a long but enjoyable six years at WIC. I'd like to thank my parents for everything they've done for me. I appreciate it. To my friends: Thunder (aka Crash), want me to wash your car? M.H., I missed you. A.O., whatever happened to Precilla? Be an; Green! Lorraine, is she wearing a B? L.L., let's go shopping. C.R., Where we goin? K.B., Want me to drive? S.H., Nice 4 inch pumps! M.W., You are so tuff (Ha!Ha!) J.J., You are such a man. M.M., tried any "speedy getaways" lately? T.M. amd C.W., I'm coming back for my lunches. M.L., They aren't dirty looks. Son, want a HEAD? Jenny, I missed you. Does anyone have a banana?

JEFF JOHNSON

Throughout my life I have put up with way too much, but I have dealt it out twice as hard. WIC is a strange place filled with strange people. M.H. you're a funny kid, M.W. Come get some, M.L. keep watching my back, S.H. Weasel, A.S. Shrew, S.M. Kickboxing's a joke, J.O. I'm squishing your head. A.P. P.hound, J.B. you put up with too much, E.L. See ya monk. Long live the Dangerous Crew + all Skaters, shout out to the old school wic'ers.

L.L., I've known you for 12 years, thank for always being there for me. N.V., you haven't been part of the gang for too long but we still love you. N.S., oh my god like did you like see my like new dress? G.P., you've always been the sexiest man in school. M.M., I want a divorce. Mr. Forrester, for the last time shut up. Myr.L., thank for all the rides. K.D., Windermere was strange. It's nowhere man. I've never played darts with someone so often in my life. I'll always love you. Thank for all the memories guys, and good luck.
Love, Steph

MIKE LEARMONTH

You'll have to excuse me, I'm not at my best...I wish there was some way I could be outside playing basketball in the rain and not get wet. Now wouldn't that be great? Many thanks to those who helped me along the long road of life. You know who you are.

SONIA KOWALEWSKI

Thanks to all the teachers who have made a positive contribution to my life. (Mrs.deForest) special thanks to all my friends who have made my years at WIC enjoyable. E.L. — Run down Blackfoot and get them; L.L. — thanks for the talks, you know what I mean; J.B. — Funky Monkey; C.R. — let's go for coffee; D.C. — thanks for always being there to listen to me; M.M. — Let's get some cheezy movies! (up at the cabin) And to Steve Holbrook, what a party! I love you, you're so gorgeous.

LORRAINE LAU

First and foremost, I'd like to thank my family who have supported me throughout the years. Mom, Dad: thank you for doing the best you could. Tom: I still believe in you, so don't ever give up. Tob: You'll always make me proud. Wow, six whole years at WIC seem much too long, but I made it w/ the help of some amazing teachers. Mr.Smith, Ms.Bedard, Mr.Martin, Mrs.Hollinshead, Mr.Rennie: I can't thank you enough. And of course to all my friends who I'm nothing without. CG: stay of the streets. NV: Go back to the Ponoka. SK: 2 years WOW! NS: men suck. KH: You go girl. DF: Don't go clubbing so often. AH: You're not an oreo. P: My name isn't mouse. JM: The answer is 0. OK gotta go - Dawson's Creek is on.

MYRON LITTMAN

My two years at WIC have been, on the whole, very good. I hope all of you have happy and successful futures. I will miss most of you. I'd like to thank my parents for supporting me and my parents for caring about me. I'm sure that one day, I'll look back at my high school years and appreciate them more than I do at this time. But thanks for making them fun by offering your friendship. You can e-mail me at mlittman@bigfoot.com. tly "What, in the end, is common?" - Freidrich Nietzsche

JILL MARCOTTE

In grade 8 along came this girl, whose hair had many a frizzy curl
So many things she'll never forget, vegetables, ju-jubes and a closet
From camping trips, to broken glasses, Muffin tops and all those AP classes
Interact cards and "you owe me one," her years at WIC were filled with fun
Now she moves on with memories, of lazyboys, "green" and parties
Her frizzy curls are all gone, but her height's the same with no heels on
She leaves behind her kill and tie, and says, goodbye.

MORGAN MCGREGOR

I can honestly say that after my five years at WIC I have found myself. I never would have imagined that this small school and all the people I have met would teach me the answers to life. J.W., aka Mom, remember I'm your "poor muffin." E.L. and S.K., we will always be the original posse. D.F., keep the YMCA video quiet. L.L., thanks for being my support system throughout this year. S.C., you will always be my Detours partner but remember to stay away from Jerry Springer style. J.J., if you make fun of me again I will let Adam loose. K.B., we made a good team. S.M., we can always meet in Windermere. Thank you everyone for making WIC memorable. Good luck with your future endeavours.

STEPHEN MUIR

Every school along these educational travels is important, but special thanx to WIC for developing the most influential years of my life. JOHN OLSON

"Hey! Teachers! Leave them kids alone!" -Pink Floyd
Thanks to my teachers, friends, and family. Without you I wouldn't find myself at the end of this journey prepared for those years yet to come. Good Luck to you all! Especially to the Old School WICers, free at last! Les petits enfants de FLA, Apat, Sickboy, Jdogg, Woods, Muir, DO and AS (the dangerous crew). Well... it's been "Back to back jacks!" - Darren Dutchyshen, and remember "Do or do not, there is no try." -Yoda. Eat "dolphin free", and long live Nimus!

ALEXANDRA O'ROURKE

The significance of the past is not always easy to justify (right now), but should be embraced with an open heart so that one day you don't look back on it with any regret. And remember not to make too many faces — cause the wind may change and it'll get stuck!
To Isobel: "Hip Hip Hooray to the Red Footed Boobies!"
For K.L.: "If I could call back all those days of yester year I would never grow old and never be poor." - V.Morrison

DAVID OWENS

It's been a difficult but fun couple years at WIC. I'd like to thank my parents and teachers for your encouraging support. It was great to have a small graduating class because everyone knows everyone and that's important. In my continuing education I hope to discover what my real calling is. Thanks to all the people in my grade for making it enjoyable. Years down the road look out for the restaurant I hope to open.
"I can do everything through Him who gives me strength." - Philippians 4:13 would like to thank all my teachers for the great support throughout the year, especially Ms. Hollinshead, Mr. Smith, and most profoundly Mrs. deForest. I would like to say whatz up to all my boys D.C., M.D., E.J, and S.U., thanks for being there for me. I would also like to thank all my friends in the school; thanx S.K. and K.D. for keeping me amused all year. Finally I would like to thank my parents for sticking by me and getting my act together and I will always love you.

Best Regards,
Gabe

AMISH PATEL

First and foremost, Old School 4Ever! John, Fofes- "To study and not think is a waste. To think and not study is dangerous." Confucius / Puppy(JJ) - You a playa! MG - "Thanks Team" MW- Wanna be my bodyguard? NS - You trippin', it is "stairs"! Jen - Fashion Consultant Extraordinaire (aka. mom!) Props to the Dangerous Crew, AS- "Violence makes makes victims of us all", Virji - Good times with BJ's and Mudslides eh? Brown is cool! LL - Always Remeber Windermere! Jill - Your bio is a poem? How "sweet"... I DON'T OWE YOU! YOU OWE ME! Can't forget Frappacino Fridays, man am I broke from that! Words to live by: You must be the change you want to see in the world" Gandhi. Please keep in touch: amishpatel@yahoo.com (even if this is 20 years from now, try it!). Special thanks to: Mr. B (aka tank) Mr. M (aka ...) Mrs. McGee- "I teached MYSELF how to spokel" Mr. Smith (Bio Geek)

CARA ROWE

Wow, I can't believe it's over! Thanx to everyone for the support, it means a lot to me! I have had some amazing experiences these past four years that will never be forgotten! The beach is that way >> Wanna go? OK, Starbucks?! Colts rule and so does ICG!! Where's my pillow? Watch out for thunder! ahhh. Sexy baby, ha, we got your truck! Nice bumps! I love u all! and remember: "The human spirit is stronger than anything that happens to it." - C.C.Scott

KEVIN ROYER

I never thought that I would go to a private school. I used to think that it was a school for snobs, even though I still think that, I had a blast. A wise man taught me over these past three years, "genius is 90% perspiration and 10% inspiration." Remember, a small bump in the road of life won't flatten your tire and put you out of the race.

NICCI SOUTIERE

Wow, six years. Thanx to everyone who went through it with me! It's hard to sum it all up in a few lines but here goes: L.L., you're the bestest, funniest, coolest person I know, Listen! and no he's not gay. N.V., OK! I have no more gummies. S.K., like, want to join me on a cruise this weekend? A.P., how do u spell stares? K.H., mooch, u rock! C.G., u are my idol. K.D., what stop sign? J.W., look green... smack A.H., one word to describe u, eccentric! S.W., where's Sandy? M.M., sorry about the sign (Invermere). S.M., why do they call you flipper? D.F., you little party animal! Well, it's been a nice slice, lot's 'o' luv, and remember, "Make it a habit to be happy!" :o) NIC

ADAM SPRAGINS

Well, the six years are finally done and I'd just like to thank all my teachers for their wisdom and the great times in class. For someone who has to write five pages for a paragraph, this isn't much space. Thanks to SH for driving me for two years. Mrs. McGee - ELA is not for creative people. JJ - social justice hits hard. AP - Quit yur whining and avoid your panic modes. JM - Don't flip out! SH - I'll be eating at your restaurant. JO - See you when you get your license in two years. DACRMA! Catch you all later!

NYSHA VIRJI

First I would like to thank my parents for supporting me and giving me the best. Second I want to thank my friends who made WIC fun and entertaining. L.L. - Dawson's Creek is on! Never 4-get Windermere S.K. - I love you even though I haven't known you for that long...sound familiar? N.S. - I don't think we'll ever get out of physics! K.H. - you are THA BOMB CHICA! D.F. - don't ever 4-get Turner D, the partying! M.G. - thanx for all the gum, Social Studies would not be the same without you! I wish the class of 1999 the best of luck in the future. Take care, I love you all. Oh yeah, Soph, have fun at WIC!

JENNIFER WASLEN

How do you sum up six years in a couple of lines? To start, thank you! To my teachers, I know the essays will pay off someday! Mom and Dad, thanks! Kathryn and Dave, it's your turn to party! To my wonderful friends, you never cease to amaze me! You have made my memories special. Patience is a virtue, red-line anytime...you still owe me! Where are we going for lunch Friday? All Jean, Jon, Juans are hotties! Windermere baby! Bonne Chance! "If you want to sing out, sing out!" - C.Stevens

JEREMY WISEMAN

Twelve years and now the time has finally come to move on! My time at WIC has been, to say the least, enlightening and entertaining. I'd like to thank Mr.Rennie for showing me how much fun social can be and always keeping me entertained with an outstanding passion for what he does. To the rest of the teachers, thanks for putting up with my laziness and uncomparable ability to procrastinate. To my graduating class, it's been fun, I hope you will all find your place in the world. So cheerio, I'm off to England.

SANDY WONG

Six years at WIC and now it's over! C'est fini! I'll never forget that book (Right, Mrs.McGee!), those math videos from Mrs.Hollinshead and lectures from Mr.Rennie! Learning French was always a pain, but thanks to Ms.Breland, I've made it through. Alicia, thanks for being there for me through these years; remember coca-cola and crayola? Jill, Alicia, and I are still "shopping" -- wanna come? Laura, thanks for the wonderful demonstration! Thanks everyone! Love y'all!

MIKE WOODS

First I would like to thank my parents for helping me get through these past few years of High School. I had some good times and I made some great friends in my two years at WIC. K.H., you keep telling those jokes girl. A.P., thanks for all the math help. E.L., L.L., and C.R., "Don't cross this line!" M.Y., Keep away from those Mack trucks. D.O., I'll see you around the L.B.C.A. Last but not least, Stevey, Buck Five, and Muir, I'll share a Canadian with you boys anyday. "It's over let's get.....!"

MARCUS YAM

PAVEL WALECKI

Thank you for being too nice to me. It was the greatest semester in my life. Thanks Mr. Grant and Mrs.Volstad. Thanks to all my teachers and friends. Thanks to all grade eleven and twelve students. Thanks to the Rugby team. Thanks to everybody. I will never forget you. See you next time.

OUT OF MIND

THE SKY IS FALLING

As the dark grey sky begins to fall,
Poor little Gavin huddles against the wall.

Clutching "creature" in one hand,
He sails across to another land.
His sister doesn't stay with him,
She goes off, and doesn't comfort him.

Norah (his sister) usually loves the sea,
But "Take me back home" cries she.
No one hears her pleading call,
As the sick sea sky begins to fall.

Canada brings no joy to her,
A clear blue sky, a dark green fir.
She doesn't try to quench her misery,
She sits there, reading thoughtfully.
The other war guests have a ball,
While the English sky continues to fall.

At the Ogilvies', Gavin seems at rest,
But home is what Norah wants best.
She doesn't like where she has to be,
In a rich, "posh" house, far from the sea.

Home is where the heart is all and all,
When the war-filled skies do not fall.

As Norah begins to feel all right,
A disaster happens on Hallowe'en night.
Flames leapt up around the woods,
The four friends threw back their hoods,
And ran to the house up on the hill,
The flames setting out to kill.
The smoking fire grows big and tall,
And the Canadian sky begins to fall.

Starts with a problem,
This is war.
Some live and some die.
This is war.
A winner and a loser.
This is war.
Hatred and violence.
This is war.

Ends with death.
This is war.
Or with victory.
This is war.
It is wrong.

ISRAELI STUDENT VISIT

GRADE 11 SOCIAL STUDIES

On the afternoon of March 8, through a program coordinated by Rikki Heilik (Lisa Heilik, Grade 9) of the Calgary Jewish Centre., two high school students from Israel visited West Island College. They addressed our full Grade Eleven Class, covering the history, culture, geography and current events of their country. Their manner was engaging and the class was soon involved in the presentation, with Alex Masleck and Tom Mustapic coming up to the board to have their names spelled out in Hebrew. Magazines from Israel were passed around - the layout was right to left and page one was at what we call the back. Both students were very clear with their answers to the questions of the class, and it was obvious they had very different opinions on political issues and controversies facing their nation., so a spectrum of views was on display for our class. This is a continuing program, and we have been fortunate to have been visited for several years in succession and we look forward to next year's delegation talking to this year's Grade Tens.

-Mr. Rennie

SKI DAY

Every year, WIC goes to Lake Louise for a day of skiing/snowboarding. This year, the snow was wonderful and all enjoyed themselves. Those who chose not to go skiing went bowling in the morning and to the movies in the afternoon. Thanks to Students' Council, the day was a resounding success!

BEACH DAY

To beat the monotone of winter, Students' Council organized Beach Day. Most students and staff came dressed in beach attire; prizes were awarded for the most interesting costumes. There were also a barbecue and beach music at noon. This event brought out a great showing of school spirit!

Pictured on this page are students in the diverse beach costumes that were worn.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

MODEL UNITED NATIONS 1999

WIC participates in the Model United Nations at the University of Calgary every year, sending four teams. This year, Morocco was represented by the Grade Tens, Bangladesh and Ethiopia were represented by Grade Twelves, and the United Kingdom was represented by a combination of Grade Elevens and Twelves. Some councils, like the General Assembly, spent lots of time trying to find an acceptable agenda, but for the most part the action was lively. I was in the Security Council this year, and my favourite moment was when the Security Council summoned the Iraqi Ambassador to the room. We then proceeded to grill him for nearly ten minutes about his country's foreign policy and military intentions. Before storming out of the room, the Iraqi Ambassador threatened us all with Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical War. Things really heated up after that! The other councils had their interesting moments too. In one, a Turkish Delegate tried to unify the countries that had formerly been a part of the Ottoman Empire. As you can imagine, the idea was swiftly shot down. In another, Sudan and Afghanistan threatened the United States with war unless they paid reparations for past cruise missile attacks.

WIC's teams did a good job representing their countries, despite having some resolutions, including one about Nuclear Disarmament, ruled dilatory by the Secretariat. We all did well and with the WIC Debate Society establishing a Model United Nations Club next year, we are certain to do even better!

-Andrew Keeping, Grade 11

GRADE 9 COURTHOUSE TRIAL

"...But if you asked the question like that, wouldn't it be ruled out as 'hearsay?'" "Maybe we should wait until our cross-examination to introduce the motive." "...How shall I give my testimony if I want to seem like I'm lying?" "I need help with this closing argument." Two weeks of English classes for our Grade 9's were abuzz with preparations for our April 20th "Murder Trials" at the Alberta Court of Appeals. While developing oral, listening, and reasoning skills, student teams for both the Crown and the Defense presented cases, student witnesses gave testimony, and a judge and jury of peers reached final verdicts.

Congratulations, Grade 9's, for having been praised by the supervisor of the Courthouse in the Classroom Program as:
 a) "having presented one of the strongest and most well-prepared cases for the Crown seen in the program," and
 b) "comparable in organization and delivery to those of Law 30 students."

"Everyone worked together to make the trial work." - Sarah Goldstein

"This was a fun project. It takes a lot of work, but if you're prepared, it's an enjoyable experience for everyone." - Cam Bowers

"The evidence, the courthouse, the robes, and the witnesses made everything so realistic." - Eliot Bouvry

"Other students should definitely be able to share this..." - Cheryl Graas

"Throughout my life, I doubt that I will ever forget this experience."
 -Chris Curtis

WIC ANNUAL SCIENCE FAIR

A Student's Perspective

Another year, another science fair. This year's science fair and with it many new and innovative ideas which no doubt made the judging a little more than difficult. Fortunately, several honourable judges from around Calgary as well as many senior students from WIC graced us with their presence. Winners were eventually called forth from each grade to receive prizes and a chance to compete in the City Science Fair.

A special thanks to all staff and volunteers who helped make this year's Science Fair possible.

-Katie French, Grade 8

A Teacher's Perspective

All of our "mad" little scientists in grades 7 and 8 had their opportunity to show their "stuff" on Thursday, February 25, 1999. The culmination of their hard work was displayed at our annual West Island College Science Fair. Once again, one of the most impressive features about this event is the creativity that the students come up with in valuable projects of scientific investigation. Whether you wanted to know more about avalanches, acupuncture, human reaction time or the Bernoulli effect, it was all there for you to see and learn more about. All of the projects were judged and the winners of each class were announced at the formal viewing ceremonies during the evening. Congratulations are given to this fine group of scientists but also all participants deserve recognition for their hard work and effort.

Winners:

Grade 7C: 1st place: Ashton Anderson; 2nd place: Jessie Hale and Aislin Winsor; 3rd place: Katie Drummond and Shannon Fong

Grade 7E: 1st place: Nicole Carrington; 2nd place: Todd Gordon; 3rd place: Laura Gedge

Grade 8C: 1st place: Alex Tims; 2nd place: Davis Winters and Brad Conrad; 3rd place: Shannon Chu

Grade 8E: 1st place: Laura Baker and Lauren Hulecki; 2nd place: Nick Bosma; 3rd place: Justine Wilson

People's Choice Award: Laura Baker and Lauren Hulecki

An event like the Science Fair requires hard work from more than just the students. A thank you is extended to the following: Mr. Smith, M. Boulanger, Ms. Armitage, Mr. Salberg, Mrs. Messaoudi, Mrs. Volstad, Mrs. Potter (P.A.C. representative), Ms. Boisclair and the many other faculty and students who helped to organize and judge the projects.

-Mr. Forrester

LA SOIRÉE FRANÇAISE

The SOIRÉE FRANÇAISE is always an interesting and rewarding event. This year was no exception. Two representatives from each grade level and each stream (continuing and enriched) had been chosen in their class performance to present in front of parents, teachers, and peers. Although the topics varied, the focus remained on the qualities of sound oral presentation techniques. The quality this year was exceptional.

There were twelve participants: from 7E, we had Emily Jackson and Stacy Cormack; from 7C, we heard from Marina Dekanic and Katie Drummond; 8E brought forth Elana Taub and Katie French; 8C gave us Vanessa Orrego and Brad Conrad; 9E's representatives were Amber Streukens and Lisa Heilik; and finally, Emily Johnson and Bruce Graham represented the class of 9C. The winners of the evening for the Enriched program were Elana Taub (8E), Emily Jackson (7E), and Amber Streukens (9E). Winning in the continuing stream were Emily Johnson (9C), Vanessa Orrego (8C) and Katie Drummond (7C).

This year's evening was accentuated by four students in 9C (Bruce Graham, Adrienn Szivos, Morgan Yaholnitsky, and Marta Broniewski) who presented a bilingual debate - as if unilingual debate is not hard enough!

Thank you to all the students, teachers, and parents who supported the evening. À la prochaine!

-Mr. Belisle, Mrs. Muller, Mrs. Breland

Junior Debate Club 1998-1999

This was the Junior Debating Club's fifth year in existence at WIC. This year, we participated in five tournaments including our Christmas tournament that we have hosted annually for the past three years.

This year's resolutions forced our debaters, veterans and beginners alike, into many different realms of research - multiculturalism, with a resolution on tolerance; foreign policy with the issue of embargos as devices of influence and the issue of privatization of government run companies (C.B.C.).

Three teams were entered into the Calgary regional tournament and are hoping to earn a position into the provincials. The members of the Junior Debating Club should be congratulated for their hard work and dedication. A thank you is given to the college, the parents (of debaters and at large), and the P.A.C. for their support of this academic venture.

While this is our fifth year, things must continue to evolve. We are hoping to continue to expand debate from a club into a "society" which will encompass the senior teams and the junior teams and the speech arts clubs.

This year would not have been such a success without the efforts of Andrew Keeping, Senior debater and Junior Debate coach.

-Darren Forrester, Assistant Headmaster

(top far left and below far left) Prizes at the West Island College Debate Tournament varied from the usual trophies to plants, stuffed animals and genuine WIC coffee mugs.

THE CANTERBURY TALES

The West Island Drama Club put on a production of Chaucer's classic story poem, The Canterbury Tales, at The Loose Moose Theatre, on May 12, 1999. The adaptation intended to make vivid, as perhaps only theatre can, both a great work of literature and a colourful period of history. Our performance contained only five of the original tales: The Wife of Bath's Tale, The Merchant's Tale, The Pardoner's Tale, The Nun's Priest's Tale, and The Franklin's Tale. The script was updated to mostly modern English, but the playwright, Arnold Wengrow, retained the original rhyming couplet form. The stories serve to remind us that, throughout the ages, people are motivated by the same human drives. Chaucer hoped his tales would expose our vanity and our greed, and turn us in life's pilgrimage toward honour, faithfulness, courtesy and generosity. In these days of Presidential indiscretions and Jerry Springer shows, it is comforting to know that there is, indeed, "nothing new under the sun"!

A Student's Perspective, by Katie French

I am not the world's greatest actor, nor do I pretend to be. But something about acting makes me feel great: it's a kind of natural high. From ill-fitting costumes and greasy stage make-up to last minute memorization and stage fright, it's the best! I don't see myself as some Hollywood mega-star, but it is nice to know that you have the ability to entertain and bring laughter to others. It also lets you understand other people's perspectives: one minute you're a Queen, the next, a simple beggar. The play we put on this year was something I'll never forget. I learned big words that Mrs. McGee thinks will be helpful in the future; I discovered how much work it takes to put on a play; and I made really great friends. Only a day later, I started to miss not having the play constantly in the back of my mind, and didn't know what to do with lunchtimes and after school! I even missed Ms. Webb's nagging! I can't wait for another 365 days so that I can do it all again!

WICAA ATHLETIC AWARDS

This has been a great year for the College's varsity sports teams. This year's Senior Girls Basketball Team and Senior Boys Volleyball Team came second in their division. The Field Hockey team had their best season yet and the Rugby team placed third in the Banff Tournament. We also had many students go to the city and provincial championships in Badminton. So it is at this time that we would like to recognize the people who have brought our school these many victories: the players.
